Basement Fall Kills Woman In Carterville

A 75-year-old Carterville woman was found dead Saturday on a couch in her living room from head injuries suffered in a fall down the basement steps of her home.

Mrs. Cora Crowther, a widow, of 311 N. Division St., became the second victim of a basement fall within a day in the area. A Herrin woman died Friday after a similar accident.

Mrs. Crowther made her way up the winding concrete basement steps and into the living room of her home where she was found dead on a couch. A pool of blood was found at the bottom of the basement steps.

A verdict of accidental death was returned at an inquest conducted Sunday morning at the Hill Funeral Home in Carterville by Coroner Sam Simmons.

It is believed that Mrs. Crowther fell Saturday morning. Relatives who had called at her home without any response became alarmed and called Carterville Marshal Ab Priddy. Priddy forced his way into the house and found Mrs. Crowther about 6 p.m. Saturday.

He testified at the inquest that a bucket of coal was found at the head of the basement steps. It was thought that Mrs. Crowther had probably carried the bucket of coal upstairs and suffered a dizzy spell or fainted before the fall.

Mrs. Crowther was born Nov. 5, 1878, a daughter of Isom and Jane Hampton Cannedy. She married John Crowther in 1936 in Grassy Township. Her husband and three infant children preceded her in death.

She leaves a brother, Ernest Cannedy of Anna; a half-sister, Mrs. Pearl Helms of Carterville; a half-brother, John Throgmorton of Flora, and a step-sister, Mrs. Rebecca Barnett of Belton, Tenn.

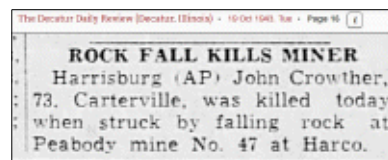

She was a lifelong resident of Carterville.

Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Tuesday in the Hill Funeral Home, where friends may call, with the Rev. William Coleman

General Notes: John H. Throgmorton came to Flora three years ago and purchased his present drug business.

He was a stranger in town, but this only lasted a short time, because he was at once recognized as a genial, pleasant gentleman and an honest, straightforward, enterprising business man.

But few young men have made more rapid progress in building up a good business than Mr. Throgmorton in so short a time.

His trade is extending and increasing right along. His store is a model of its kind, everything clean and in order. He is courteous and gives prompt attention to his patrons. In addition to a full line of drugs, you will find in his store a nice assortment of fine stationery, and a soda fountain where all kinds of delicious drinks are sold.

Mr. Throgmorton is now a fixture as one of Flora's leading and substantial business men.

Fog Causes 3 Fatalities And Super Crash In Area

A Tennessee man, headed for a Christmas vacation in Carterville, was killed early Saturday when his car ran off the road east of Carterville and hit a tree.

Gus Helms, 62, McKenzie, Tenn., was pronounced dead on arrival at Herrin Hospital. He was alone in the car and was going to Carterville for a holiday visit with his son, Richard Helms.

The car left the Carterville blacktop about two miles east of town and went down an embankment. State Patrolman Floyd Myers said the car hit the tree squarely.

Helms was born in Carterville, but had lived in Tennessee for the last few years. He operated the McKenzie Hotel.

Police said the accident happened shortly after midnight. The area was shrouded in fog at the time.

In addition to his son, Helms leaves his wife, Mrs. Ada Ward Helms, McKenzie, Tenn., and a sister, Mrs. Mary Watson of Carbondale.

Funeral services will be at 2 p. m. Monday in the Hill Funeral Home of Carterville. The Masonic Lodge will have charge of graveside rites and burial will be at Carterville.

Suffocation, Burns Cited In Moore Inquest

A coroner's jury ruled Friday night that Charles Moore, 79, Carterville, died of third degree burns and suffocation suffered when he caught fire while preparing breakfast.

The aged man was found at his home, 1101 S. Davison St., early Friday after neighbors heard his screams. He was in flames and still alive when firemen arrived, but died shortly after.

Coroner Adolph Fluck said several pieces of sausage were found in a skillet on a gas stove, three burners of which were lighted. The remains of a piece of paper were found in one of the burners and Fluck theorized the paper may have been ignited and set Moore's clothes on fire.

A retired coal miner and janitor, Moore lived alone.

Moore was born May 22, 1878. He was married to Miss Mettie Chamness Feb. 2, 1902, at Carterville. She died April 13, 1948.

He leaves a sister, Mrs. Ann Góins of Herrin, and brothers Leo and Chris of Marion, Will of Carterville and Milo in Indiana. He and his wife also reared two nephews and a niece. They are Mrs. Esle Lyons, Marion, Ind.; Ernest Chamness, Del Ray Beach, Fla., and Elmer Chamness, La-Grange, Ind.

Funeral services will be at 2 p. m. Sunday in the Hill Funeral Home of Carterville where friends may call. The Rev. William T. White will officiate and burial will be in Hillcrest cemetery.

Using census it looked like in 1920 Herbert was married to Callie. Following her and finding obit in 1992 this callie was Callie Faye Lewis Anderson southern Illinoisian 2/3/1987

This is a 1986 Quadrennial Rassessment for Williamson county lists Callie Lewis Anderson. Also note that his name was Charles H in 1940. Finding Charles Herbert's obit (Southern Illinoisian 12/29/1950) it says he married a Callie Snyder in 1914. So if these two Herberts are the same (and the birthdates etc match) it looks like our Pearl must have died between 1912 and 1914

West Plains Daily Quill - West Plains, Missouri September 10, 2016:

Growing up as an only child was not always fun. There were a lot of times I was lonely and felt that I needed more friends.

No matter what I have ever had going on in my life I have always known that my grandpa was my best friend and my greatest support. His name was Phillip Ray Crain and he was my hero. He taught me how to fish, how to drive, and how to be a sidekick.

We traveled everywhere together. When I was 9 years old my parents and I lived in Springfield, Illinois. The week after school let out I had just finished 4th grade and it was 1989. Grandpa came and picked me up for my summer vacation.

We had talked about going to Alaska someday and camping all over the country and that was the summer we were going to make it happen. I was so very excited. We drove from Illinois all the way to Alaska and everywhere in between. He took me camping in Yellowstone National Park, we saw Mt. Rushmore, Crazy Horse, the Yukon Territory and many other places.

We camped and went sightseeing all over the country and Canada. One of my favorite places was the Badlands and the North Pole, Alaska. No where else on Earth is it Christmas year round. Imagine being 9 years old and chatting it up with Santa in July!

My grandpa lived a wonderfully long life. He was born in 1917 and passed away at the ripe old age of 98 earlier this year. I am still lost without him and I am a grown woman with children of my own but he impacted my life in so many ways that I could never thank him enough for the lessons he taught and the unconditional love that he shared with me. He was also full of some pretty great stories. He lived during the great depression and fought in WW2. He outlived all his siblings and two wives but he always had the very best stories even if some of them were a little far-fetched. I love you and will miss you forever, Grandpa! I know that he is in heaven dancing with my grandma who he loved and missed since 1983.

Forever in my heart,
Christina Higgins

Travelstead, 53, said he and his wife, 50, were married Sept. 12, 1924, in Scottsboro.

He said he supported his wife and children until he was injured Nov. 6, 1953, while working as a construction engineer at Joppa.

Man injured in house fire: A house fire early Wednesday south of Marion left a resident of the home with burns to his hand and heavily damaged a bedroom and its contents. The Williamson County Fire Protection District was called at 2:02 a.m. to 7468 Norris Drive. The single-story ranch-style home is owned by Ruby Connett.

Her grandson, Shannon Connett, who lives with her, told firefighters he was smoking and dropped a lit cigarette that ignited a liquid that was in the room. He left the bedroom and shut the door behind him.

Fire damage was contained to the bedroom, but the entire structure had smoke and water damage, Fire Chief Don Swiatkowski said.

Connett was taken by ambulance to Heartland Regional Medical Center in Marion, where he was treated and released with advice to consult a burn center. The fire department contacted the Red Cross about assisting the family, Swiatkowski said.

Firefighters were at the home until 4:30 a.m.

368. John "Tex" CALVERT [25224] (Cecil CALVERT⁴, Florence Ellen CRAIN³, Priscilla Amanda HAMPTON², Mary Anne¹) was born on 9 Jul 1945 in Manitowoc, Manitowoc County, Wisconsin, died on 14 Dec 2010 at age 65, and was buried on 18 Dec 2010 in North Oakwood Cemetery, Carterville, Williamson County, Illinois.

General Notes: CARTERVILLE - John "Tex" Calvert, 65, died Tuesday, Dec. 14, 2010.

He was born July 9, 1945, in Manitowoc, Wis., to Cecil and Rachel Clavert.

He married Brenda Pavloff on June 7, 1975.

Tex and Brenda have two sons, Wesley and Winston.

Descendants of Mary Anne WEBBER

The colorful Carterville man -- "John" of "Johnny" to Crainville folk and "Tex" to nearly everyone else -- grew up in Crainville and graduated from Carterville High School in 1963, although he risked burning it down when he started a fire in a trash can during study hall because the heater was out (or so he claimed).

He was a two-degree graduate of Southern Illinois University Carbondale. He taught fifth and sixth grades in Carterville and Herrin for 33 years. He retired in 2001, stayed home five weeks into the next school year watching Judge Judy, and then returned to the classroom as a substitute teacher.

Tex was an active member of Carterville First Baptist Church, where he worked with the youth, taught Sunday school and had several other roles of leadership over the years. He was a deacon for more than 35 years, including several terms as chairman. He served on the board of directors for Illinois Baptist State Association for seven years and on the executive committee of Williamson County Baptist Association for 20 years. Along with Brenda, Tex organized Bible drills for children throughout Southern Illinois.

Tex was a familiar face in the Southern Illinois sports community. He served as the basketball scorekeeper at Carterville High School for 51 years and at John A. Logan College for 32 years. He was inducted into the Illinois Basketball Coaches Association Hall of Fame as a "Friend of Basketball." During the fall, Tex led the football chain gang at Carterville High School for 35 years and at SIU for 30 years, seeing from the sidelines his two sons play Lions football, as well as watching the seasons of the 1996 Carterville state championship and the 1983 SIU national championship team. In his early years, he also umpired baseball. He was a regular caller to Sports Voice, the sports radio show, where he was identified not by his name, but as the "Voice of ..." each week.

With his family, Tex traveled extensively, visiting every state in the continental United States and 10 Canadian provinces. He especially enjoyed the Hemlock Inn in Bryson City, N.C.; Newfoundland; Door County, Wis.; and many other small towns around the continent. He regaled family, friends and sometimes total strangers with stories -- long ones, whose details changed upon each retelling -- about his travels: having his pocket picked on a Manhattan bus while his attention was temporarily diverted; enjoying the "romance of the rails" on an overnight train ride; almost losing his life tubing on Deep Creek in North Carolina; almost losing his life a decade later in a Vermont hotel room when he fell off the bed; ordering hot chocolate at a McDonald's in Quebec on a hot day in the middle of July; his "productive" ferry ride between Nova Scotia and Newfoundland; and many others.

Survivors include his wife, Brenda, two sons and daughters-in law, Wesley and Brandy Calvert of Carterville and Winston and Amanda Calvert of St. Louis and three grandchildren (Wesley and Brandy's children, Gideon and Josiah; and Winston and Amanda's son, Jasper). He was looking forward to the birth of a granddaughter in January. He is also survived by his sister, Jane Stalker, and her husband, Jim.

Services will be at 10:30 a.m. today in First Baptist Church in Carterville. Dwayne Shewmaker, Bill McCluskey, Brad Harlow, Nate Adams, and Charles Boling will speak. Burial will be in North Oakwood Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, Tex requested memorials be made to Calvert Scholarship Fund, which he and Brenda created to provide scholarships to Carterville High School graduates. Donations can be mailed to Carterville Schools Foundation/Calvert Scholarship Fund, c/o Riggin Pillatsch & Burke Funeral Home, 322 N. Division St., Carterville, IL 62918.
