Not sure of much else about this guy. Can't find anything else I'm sure is him. There's a reference that this is LLOYD M. Webber and he was born 12/8/1898 and died 10/6/1951 in Dane County, Wisconsin. Tombstone on findagrave lists him as LLOYD with wife Lavina. There is a Capital Times in Madison, Wisconsin dated 1/2/1920 that lists a marriage license for FLOYD M. Webber and Lavina Whalen. Is this Floyd/Lloyd the same? If so then in 1920 he's in Dane County, Wisconsin. The closest I come in WWI card is a Floyd Myron Webber in Minnesota but his next of kin doesn't fit.

Denver Water Death Victim A Dodge Man
Particulars of Ewing Burnett Drowning Sought By Relatives

Ewing Burnett son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Burnett of Dodge City drown Sunday in Denver, according to word received here from his brother Allen Burnett, who also is in Denver.

Particulars of the tragedy had not been learned here at noon. Mr. Burnett was attempting to get in tour with his older son in Denver. Allen Burnett had been in Denver a year and he was joined there six weeks ago by Ewing Burnett who had found a job in Denver. He planned soon to take his wife and two small sons, who are in Coldwater, to Denver.

Arrangements will be made to bring the body here for burial.

Mr. Burnett was reared in Dodge City and Larnard. He was associated with his father in the grocery and market business here and later he operated a butcher shop in Coldwater. He had worked at the painter's trade in Ashland since then.

He is survived by the widow and two small sons, Bobby and Donald of Coldwater; his parents Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Burnett of Dodge City; a brother Allen of Denver; and a sister Mrs. Vern Popp of Kinsley.

LOSES LIFE IN DENVER

Ewing R. Burnett, who was well known in this city as Roy Burnett, lost his life while fishing in a lake in Denver, Colo., on last Sunday. He had gone to that city about six weeks ago in search of work. He recently secured a job as a meat cutter and planned to send for his entire family in a couple of weeks. His brother, Allen has been working in that city for a year or more.

The two brothers and Allen's wife had gone to the lake to fish. Ewing wore hip boots, and as he walked about in the water, he accidentally stepped into a deep hole in the lake and went down. Life was extinct when the body was rescued ten minutes later.

A pumotor (sic) was used for an hour but with no result. He had gotten one boot off, and it was thought that death was caused by a heart attack as his lungs had not been filled with water.

The body was taken to Dodge City, where burial was made on Wednesday. His wife, who was staying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. McGaulty in this city, was at once notified. Rev. Templeton, a Presbyterian pastor in Dodge City, conducted the funeral services.

Descendants of Nelson WEBBER

Deceased made his home in Coldwater for a few years. During part of the time, he operated a meat market here for his father, and later worked here with Mr. McGaully as a painter. After leaving here he worked in Larned and in Ashland.

While a resident of Coldwater, on July 23, 1924, he was united in marriage with Miss Ardinell McGaully. Two sons, Bobbie, aged six and Donald, aged two and one half years, were born to this union.

Besides the wife and two sons, Mr. Burnett is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Burnett, of Dodge City, by one brother, Allen, of Denver, and by one sister, Mrs. Vernon Popp, of Kinsley. To the bereaved relatives, the heartfelt sympathy of all is extended.

Mr. Burnett was born in Higginsville, Texas, on April 11, 1903. At the time of his death he was 28 years, one month and 20 days of age. He was a member of the U. S. Navy during the World War. In every way he was a worthy young man, and his untimely passing causes a keen sense of regret in the hearts of all who had ever known him.

The funeral of Roy Burnett, which was held in Dodge City on Wednesday was attended by several relatives and friends from this county, they being besides Mrs. Burnett, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. McGaully, Mildred and Norvella Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. John Schenk, Mrs. V. W. Seyfrit, Mrs. Joe Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Tant Hackney, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Coles, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. CARMEL

Alan Webber LaGrange , 56, formerly of Franklin and Columbus, Ohio, passed away peacefully and surrounded by his loving family on Dec. 6, 2014, under the care of IU Hospice at the home of his sister in Carmel.

Alan was born Feb. 14, 1958, in Franklin to Webber and the late Kathryn LaGrange .

Survivors include his father, Webber , of Carmel; son, Jason Alan LaGrange (Jenny) of Simpsonville, Kentucky; grandchildren, Chyanne and Elijah; brother, Gene LaGrange (Rita Lory) of Franklin; sister, Susan Loman (Steve) of Carmel; niece, Joy Coffman of Fishers; nephews, A.J. Baldrige of Carmel, Matthew LaGrange of Franklin and Nathan LaGrange (Jill) of Rochester, New York; great-nephew, Owen LaGrange ; great-niece, Arianna Baldrige; and special friends, Kristie Lester and Donna Scott.

He was a 1976 graduate of Franklin Community High School and served 11 years in the U.S. Navy, discharging as a petty officer first class.

After the Navy, Alan's work included Mayflower Moving Co., Maplehurst Bakery and Jones Lang LaSalle at the Eli Lilly Maintenance Facility as chief engineer, before moving to Columbus, Ohio, in the same capacity for JLL and CBRE at NetJets.

Alan was well known for his wonderful smile and zest for life, having never known a stranger. Though not an educator, he was a life teacher! He volunteered in a teaching role to fourth-grade students during Indy 500 Festivals. He enjoyed taking people on his sailboat, teaching them how to sail, taught others to fly stunt kites, educated about different types of birds and their sounds, and the list could go on and on. Alan touched so many lives and will be deeply missed by many. He has forever left a void in many hearts!

A memorial service with military honors will be at 2 p.m. Saturday at the Franklin American Legion Post 205, 1200 Park Ave., Franklin. After the service a celebration of Alan's wonderful life will continue with food and fellowship.
