Alvena LACKEY [8186] was born on 22 Jan 1934 in Oakland, Marion County, Arkansas, died on 21 Jan 2012 in Fresno, Fresno County, California at age 77, and was buried on 25 Jan 2012 in Belmont Memorial Park, Fresno, Fresno County, California.

General Notes: Fresno Bee - 1/25/2012:

Alvena Buckmaster Leisle, at the age of 77, took God's loving hand and went home. She courageously battled chronic lung disease for many years, but never allowed her health struggles to affect her amazing and positive attitude. Alvena lived her life always, with optimism, grace and courage.

She had a great appreciation for all those around her and was always thinking of others before herself. She was a kind, patient, fair minded and deeply moral person who will always be lovingly remembered for her quick wit and her wonderful sense of humor. She touched the lives of so many, and will be greatly missed.

Alvena was born in Oakland, Arkansas to Delmer and Elsie Lackey. A few years later they moved to Oroville, Ca. where she grew up.

She married her first husband, William Buckmaster, in January 1950, and they had two children together, a daughter, Vickie and a son, Michael. They were married 23 years until his death.

After being widowed for 16 years, she married the love of her life, Edward Leisle, in July 1989, and they were very happily married for 23 years.

She worked for Bank of America for 27 years. She loved working for the bank and had dreams that she still worked there for many years after her retirement.

Alvena was preceded in death by her parents; her brother Elmo; and her son Michael.

Alvena is survived and will be dearly missed by her loving and devoted husband, Edward Leisle; her daughter, Vickie Hemmingson and her husband Jon; Ed's sons, Jeff Leisle, Roger Leisle and his wife Norma, Stan Leisle and his wife Rose; Ed's daughters, Shirley Winter and her husband John and Kathy Trickett and her husband Timm; two sisters, Etta Horton and Darlene Merck; and one brother, Elmer Lackey and his wife Joann. She also leaves behind two grandsons, Richard Coombs and his wife Jeanna, Randy Coombs and his wife Monica and several other grandchildren and great grandchildren, and many nieces and nephews.

Visitation will be held at Lisle Funeral Home on Friday, January 27, 2012, from 2:00 p.m. until 7:00 p.m.

Service will be closed casket. The Funeral Service will be held at Lisle Funeral Home, on Saturday, January 28, 2012, at 1:00 p.m.

Interment will follow at Belmont Memorial Park.

Marriage 1

Descendants of Malissa Cooper

Jesse E. SULLENS [17564] was born on 10 Sep 1910 in Eufaula, McIntosh County, Oklahoma, died on 2 Oct 1934 in Salem, Marion County, Oregon at age 24, and was buried in Oregon State Hospital, Salem, Marion County, Oregon. The cause of his death was tuberculosis.

General Notes: From findagrave;

Jesse's cremated remains were never taken after death and are still available at the Oregon State Hospital to be claimed by anyone who is related. More information about unclaimed cremains at OSH is available at <http://www.oregon.gov/oha/amh/osh/pages/cremains.aspx> A book by David Maisel and a documentary by Ondi Timoner & Robert James, both entitled "Library of Dust" also provide more information.

Jesse was born in Oklahoma in 1910 to Robert W. "Bob" Sullens and Mary Ann Lackey. His father was born in Texas in 1861 and his mother was born in Arkansas in 1879. They married about 1905. It was her first marriage and his second. Jesse was reportedly born with developmentally delays.

Before Jesse was born Mary had had a child who did not survive. Jessie's full siblings who did survive were born in Oklahoma and included: Ed Wallace (born in 1914), William W. (in 1918), and Claude (in 1922).

Jesse had 3 half-siblings (all born in Arkansas). They were the children of his father and his father's first wife who died before 1900. They included Montie Newton (born in 1887), Myrtle Alice (in 1891) and James Ollie (about 1894).

In the census of 1910 (before Jesse was born) his parents and half-siblings were farming in Simpson, McIntosh County, Oklahoma. In the census of 1920 Jesse was listed with his parents and siblings in Simpson where his father operated a farm. Jesse was 9 years old and not attending school, but none of the children in the area were attending school either. Jesse and his family moved to Oregon in 1922. During the 1930 census the Sullens family lived in Dundee, Yamhill County, Oregon where Robert and Jesse were both working in the woods as "wood cutters." Jesse was 19. Neither he nor his mother could read or write, but his father could. In 1933 the family moved from the Dundee/Newberg area to Union Hill (near Sublimity, Oregon) in the Willamette Valley.

In June 1933 Jesse contracted tuberculosis. On 1/8/1934 when he was 23 years old Jesse was admitted to the Oregon Fairview Home in Salem, Oregon. This was originally the Oregon State Institution for the Feeble-Minded, a residential, quasi-educational institution charged with educating people with developmental disabilities. In 1933 the facility was renamed Oregon Fairview Home and continued serving those with disabilities. It was closed in 2000. Jesse died of TB on 10/2/1934 at the institution. He was 24 year old and had lived at Fairview for almost 9 months.

Ed Wallace SULLENS [17565] was born on 7 Aug 1914 in Stidham, McIntosh County, Oklahoma, died on 29 Mar 1973 in Marion County, Oregon at age 58, and was buried in Saint Mary Catholic Cemetery, Stayton, Marion County, Oregon.

Ed married Loretta Dora DITTER [17568] [MRIN: 6388], daughter of _____ and _____, btw 4/24/1940 - 6/1/1942. Loretta was born on 25 Jan 1923 and died on 16 Dec 2009 in Marion County, Oregon at age 86. They had two children: Doyle Wayne and Diana.

Doyle Wayne SULLENS [17569] was born on 16 Feb 1942 in Stayton, Marion County, Oregon, died on 6 Sep 2010 in Stayton, Marion County, Oregon at age 68, and was buried on 11 Sep 2010 in Saint Mary Catholic Cemetery, Stayton, Marion County, Oregon.

General Notes: There is some discrepancy here. This obit has her the daughter of Albert J and Hannah Wise Stafford. Baxter County Families has her the daughter of Andrew Jackson and Anna Louise Stafford. Checking 1880 cesus (Yes I realize she wasn't born till 1882) show no Albert Stafford or Hannah Wise. Checking the official Baxter Co marriage records, I see no Albert or Hannah.

The marriage date of 12/18/1898 for the marriage of Nancy and Josiah comes from O Grave Importance Cemetery records. This is an error. The marriage liscense has the date as 12/18/1899. The marriage liscense has father as A.J. so that doesn't help with his name.

Baxter Bulletin - May 22, 1969

Mrs. Viola Marler,
Gassville Resident

Mrs. Viola Marler, 87, of Route 1, Gassville, the widow of J. E. Marler, died Monday at a Salem nursing home. She was a lifetime resident of Baxter County and a member of the Baptist Church.

Survivors include two sons, Isaac Marler of Ontario, Ore., and L. J. Marler of Gassville; three daughters, Mrs. Beulah Brannon of Yuba City, Calif., Mrs. Cora Megee of Rio Linda Calif., and Mrs. Ona Jones of Woodland, Calif.; a brother, Ab Stafford, and a sister, Mrs. Lucy Sinor, both of Mountain Home; 21 grandchildren, 29 great-grandchildren and six great-great-grandchildren.

The daughter of Albert J. Stafford and Hannah Wise Stafford, Mrs. Marler was born at Gassville on Jan. 6, 1882. She had been widowed since May 26, 1964.

Rev. Isaac Marler of Mountain Home officiated at the funeral service Wednesday at the Pilgrim's Rest Baptist Church, west of here. Interment was in the Pilgrim's Rest Cemetery, with the McClure Service in charge of arrangements.

FUNERAL PROGRAM

REMEMBERING A FRIEND

HE WAS A SOLDIER: He served his country honorably and thought highly of his fellow soldiers.

HE LOVED HIS HERTIAGE: Legends and folk tales learned from his Creek grandfathers and grandmothers; mother and father meant much to him, and he became a great teller of stories to his family and friends.

HE LOVED NATURE: It was his great desire to be "at one" wth nature, and he spent many hours, just walking around enjoying trees, flowers, birds and animals.

"Ronnie was the highest ranking non-commissioned sergeant in the Oklahoma National Guard. He was stationed all around Oklahoma but never saw action. A Captain, Major and two Colonels served as casket bearers. It says a lot about Ronnie." by Mike Wendel, lifetime friend.

James married Maud A. MOONEY [9712] [MRIN: 3706], daughter of Calhoun MOONEY [9707] and Narcisses Jane HARVEY [6619], about 1898. The marriage ended in divorce in 1900-1902. Maud was born on 27 Oct 1880 in Arkansas, died on 19 Feb 1964 in Wheeler, Wheeler County, Texas at age 83, and was buried in Wheeler Cemetery, Wheeler, Wheeler County, Texas. They had three children: Jewel E., Ethel D., and Eula Fay.

Marriage Notes: James and kids living with his folks in 1910 census and Maud remarried in 1902. They were together in 1900 census so prob divorced between 1900-1902

Jewel E. DILBECK [4471] was born on 8 Mar 1897 in Gassville, Baxter County, Arkansas, died on 27 Nov 1949 in Wheeler, Wheeler County, Texas at age 52, and was buried on 29 Nov 1949 in Wheeler Cemetery, Wheeler, Wheeler County, Texas.

General Notes: Jewel is very difficult to sort out. 1940 census she's listed with parents as Jewell Culpepper. Her death notices in 1949 she's listed as Heath. Found a marriage record for her daughter Mildred in 1931 that says "Mildred M. Culpepper" marrying Carl Spence. Mildred is listed as Spence in Jewells obit. So it appears (can't find marriage record) she married the Heath between 1940-1949 (census and death).

BUT, the obit lists a son, Laverne Heath, living in Madison Wisconsin. Almost as if he was grown. Can't find Laverne in the 1940 census. Mildred in 1940 census puts her birth about 1910. This doesn't make sense because Jewel would have had her at age 13. Now this census I could buy that her age is 20 instead of 30. That would put her birth as 1920, but that would make Mildred's son born with her at age 15.

Would say this is a different Jewel Heath, but the obit lists her parents and siblings.

Really can't find what I believe is her in 1920 or 1930 census

General Notes: Shreveport Times - January. 10, 2008

Mabel Huckabee Green Sunrise: April 21, 1920 Sunset: January 8, 2008 SHREVEPORT, LA - Mabel Huckabee Green was born in Springhill, Arkansas, the second of five children born to Ethel and George Huckabee. Upon graduation from Norphlet High School, she and her older sister, Kathleen, traveled to the big city of Shreveport to attend Schumpert Nursing School. Mabel graduated as a registered nurse, and shortly afterwards, met and married her husband, Cecil, in 1941. "This explains why a man leaves his father and mother and is joined to his wife, and the two are united into one" (Gen. 2:24). Cecil and Mabel had three children - two sons, Dale Edward and Gerald Lee, and one daughter, Celia Ann. "Children are a gift from the Lord; they are a reward from Him" (Psalm 127:3). They lived in Shreveport during their marriage of 57 years. Mabel worked as a RN on 2nd floor at the Schumpert Hospital for 20 years, retiring in 1980. She was exceptional in her profession. Cecil and Mabel moved to Live Oak Retirement Center in 1996 where she devotedly cared for Cecil until his death in 1998. They were longtime members of the First Baptist Church (formerly Highland Baptist). "The grass withers, and the flowers fade, but the word of our Lord stands forever." (Isaiah 40:8). Survivors include her son, Gerald Lee Green and his wife, Pen of San Antonio, TX; daughter, Celia Ann Gallagher and her husband, Jim of Shreveport, LA; four grandchildren; four great grandchildren; two sisters, Mary Mule' and Bonnie Jean Chesley and husband, Chuck; and brother, Gloyd Huckabee and wife, Iris. Eula Fay DILBECK [4450] was born on 19 Jun 1901 in Arkansas and died on 25 Aug 1959 in Lakewood General Hospital, San Bernardino, San Bernardino County, California at age 58.

General Notes: Listed as Fay Dilbeck this would have her born either 1901-1902. This would be around the time of Maude's remarriage.

I can't find Fay in the 1920 Census. Also check marriage records (as she would be 18 in 1920) in Oklahoma, Texas and Arkansas and can't find anything. Did she die before 1920??

Apparantly still alive as she's listed as Faye Havenhill in sister (Jewell) obit.

General Notes: Albany Democrat Herald - June 24, 2006

Lawrence Lee McGehee, 76, died after an extended illness.

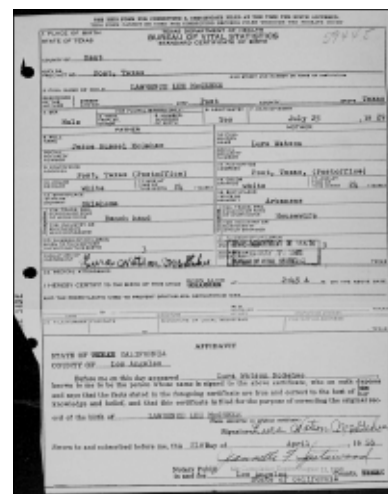

He was born near Post, Texas, son of Russell McGehee and Lura (Watson) McGehee. Youngest of three, his sister, Lerene (Hester), passed last year and sister Murel (McGee) survives.

Larry loved horses and ranch life. Being a farrier, he raised and trained horses on the side until disablement in 1985. He also held jobs in the aircraft, machine shop and lumber industries.

Stories he shared involved shoeing horses for Roy Rogers, including Trigger. He worked at Disneyland at its opening, shoeing Walt's horses, and also worked on horses owned by Desi Arnaz.

Larry is survived by wife of 57 years Laurel (Pritchard) McGehee; sons and daughters-in-laws James and Lorie McGehee, Stan and Karrie McGehee, and Chuck and Karen McGehee; daughter Lorna and son-in-law Mark Kackley; grandchildren Breanna, Keegan, Andy, Barbie, Sam, Ed, Ashley, Chris and Sarah McGehee, and Ryan, Aaron, Justin and Makenna Kackley; and grandson Shane Conrad, currently serving in Iraq.

He will be remembered for his sense of humor and upbeat positive attitude, along with his stories. The family would like to thank the many friends who kept in contact with him over the years.

Findagrave:

Ester Lois Adams, 90 of Mangum, died Friday evening July 7, 2006, at Mangum Community Hospital.

She was born Sept. 16, 1915, in Vinson to Kerty and Ina (Dilbeck) Watson. A 1934 graduate of Vinson High School, Lois married Delaware C. Adams on Oct. 6, 1934, in Mangum. Initially, they made their home in the Reed Community but later moved to Stephenville, Texas in 1946. They moved back to Mangum in the 1950s. Moving to Martha in 1959, she worked in the cafeteria of Martha Public School for more than 18 years, retiring in 1979. After her retirement, she and Delaware moved back to Mangum and made their home until her death.

Marriage

A loving wife, mother and grandmother, she loved quilting, fishing and working in her garden and yard. Out of all her pastimes, spending time with her children, grandchildren and other relatives and friends was her favorite. Early in life, she became a member of the Church of Christ. She first attended the Vinson and Reed congregations and in 1954 she began attending the Mangum Church of Christ where she was very active in singing for special events and participating in all church functions until four weeks ago when her health began to fail.

She was preceded in death by her parents; three sisters, Verla Nabours, Lura McGehee and Lela Hendricks; three brothers, Olen Watson, Floyd Watson and Eldon Watson; her husband Delaware of the home; five children, Sue Smith and husband Henry of Reed, Jerry Adams and wife Janell of Mangum, Janice Wooten and husband Frank of Shawnee, Shirley Ludwick and husband Ron of Duncan and Karen Brooks of Blair; one sister, Noveta Dixon of Florida; 16 grandchildren, Pam Burnam, Cheryl Batey, Kevin Adams, Kim Saucedo, Amy Callins, Robert G. Adams, Cyndi D. White, Linn Wooten, Rodney Wooten, Pam Wooten, Krystall Wooten, Steven Ludwick, Tracey Helmka, Michael Langham, Jennifer Shaw and Lori Langham; along with many nieces, nephews other relatives and many friends.

Funeral services were held today at the Mangum Church of Christ with Roger Todd officiating. Interment was to follow at the Reed Cemetery under the direction of Greer Funeral Home of Mangum.

Descendants of Malissa Cooper

General Notes: Findagrave says born in Parsons, Labette County, Arkansas.

George Albert "Gay" Dilbeck, 63, Montgomery, Alabama, passed away Thursday, December 16, 2010 in Montgomery, AL.

He was born on April 1, 1947 to Gloyd A. Dilbeck of McAlester, OK and Margaret Ann (Adcox) Dilbeck of Newport, AR.

Gay was a well-respected scientist working for the EPA since 1991 in Las Vegas, NV and most recently Montgomery, AL. He grew up in Jacksonville where he was active in all sports. He attended Oklahoma for two years where he played one year of football for his beloved Sooners. He completed his B.S. in Chemistry in 1970 from University of Central Arkansas, Ph.D. in Chemistry in 1974 from Oklahoma State University and completed Post Doctoral Research in Organic Chemistry in 1975 at Vanderbilt University.

He was a "highly extroverted" person who has been all over the United States giving presentations for the EPA. He loved to talk in front of groups. He was known for his sense of humor and email jokes, his smile and laugh, his booming voice and "bear" hugs. He had a passion for teaching others, regularly teaching Chemistry at UALR and most recently Troy University. He loved to visit friends, attend or watch Sooner games and NASCAR events, made friends where ever he traveled but never forgot his home state of Arkansas. He brought joy to all he knew as an unforgettable friend and will be deeply missed.

Gay was preceded in death by his parents. He is survived by his sister Debra of Little Rock and Aunt Virginia Adcox of Star City. There will be a visitation starting at 2 pm followed by a memorial service at 3 pm Tuesday, December 28th at the Ruebel Funeral Home chapel.

Memorials may be made to CARTI for support of children, 4130 Shuffield Drive, Little Rock, AR 72205.

Delmas G. (Del) Akers

March 6, 1920 - February 1, 2014

Del was born in Clovis, New Mexico. He was one of 8 children. He is survived by 3 sisters, Maxine, Mary and Shirley who live in New Mexico. A child of the Depression, he picked cotton, worked in the oil fields and any other jobs he could find.

He joined the Army in 1941 and spent 37 months in the Pacific Theatre with the Fifth Air Force. After the war he was stationed in England and was part of the Berlin Air Lift. Del was proud of his service, but like his peers, said little about it.

In 1946 he married Mona Caywood and they were together until his death, a week short of 68 years.

After the Army he followed his brother to the copper mines in Utah and from there to the Northern Pacific Railroad in Pasco. He worked for 30 years at Northern Pacific/Burlington Northern and was very proud of being a "Railroader" and the people he worked with.

Mona and he raised two children; Debbie Lucas (John) and Monte (Sheri). They have 4 grandchildren; Patrick (Courtney) Stanton, Katie (Sal) Aguilar, Kyle (Anna) Akers, and Lindsey (Geoff) Germano and 6 great grandchildren; Rian Stanton, Grayson, Jaden and Peyton Aguilar and Campbell and Kylan Akers.

After retiring, Del enjoyed watching the Mariners, Seahawks and golf on TV (even though he never played a round). He worked diligently in his yard to the end.

The family appreciates the professional and loving care provided by the wonderful people at Hawthorne Court and Tri-Cities Chaplaincy. Also a special thanks to Dr. Zuroske for all the years of care he provided. Donations may be made in his honor to the Tri-Cities Chaplaincy.
